Current Issues

We live in a pluralistic society with many conflicting beliefs and values. As a volunteer, students may ask you specific questions about controversial issues. Your answers will be guided by your personal convictions. We must know the views of volunteers that would be role models for our students, and that their views are founded on Biblical truth.

1. What are your beliefs and practices about the personal use of tobacco, alcohol, and any other privately consumed substances?

2. Are you now or have you formerly consumed any illegal drugs or controlled substances? If yes, please explain.

3. What are your beliefs regarding premarital sex, homosexuality, and abortion?

4. Have you ever been convicted of a felony or a crime involving moral turpitude? If yes, please explain.

5. Please comment how the Lord has led you toward mentorship at Montgomery Christian School.

6. Is there any aspect of your present life or social media that might embarrass this school? If yes, please explain.

Areas of Life Practice:

Please answer each of the questions below. This will enable us to do two things: become familiar with aspects of your life which will directly affect all of us; and learn of ways in which we may serve you as Christ makes you more into His image.

1. While each of us develops spiritually over our lifetime, describe your spiritual development over our life time, describe your spiritual development, regarding Bible study, prayer life, and church activities, and any specific ways this maturity is shown in your life.

2. Describe two of your most important objectives in life and how you plan to reach those objectives.

3. What specific gifts do you possess to equip you for mentoring students?

Jurat: I affirm the information given above is true to the best of my knowledge.
